Doug Branning is a successful 47-year old stockbroker who has to learn the skills to protect his family and help them survive.

Deni Branning is Doug's recently engaged 22-year old daughter, who has just landed a new internship at a television station in Washington, D.C. Spoiled and self-indulgent, she has a rude awakening when everything she cherishes is gone.

Kay Branning is Doug's 45-year-old wife and mother of their four children – a Christian work-in-progress who has to learn what true faith is.

Jeff Branning, 16, is Doug and Kay's son, a jock and a Christian who's learning to be responsible, but still very much a kid with moments of sneaking around.

Beth Branning is Doug and Kay's 12-year old daughter.

Logan Branning is Doug and Kay's 9-year old son.

Brad Caldwell, the Brannings' next-door neighbor, is an attorney and a good man, but not a Christian.

Judith Caldwell, a nurse, is Brad's wife and mom to their two kids.

Drew Caldwell is Brad and Judith's 9-year old son and a friend of Logan Branning.

Jeremy Caldwell is Brad and Judith's younger son, age 7.

Mark Green is Deni's 22-year-old high school friend who works as a carpenter.

Chris Horton, 22, is Deni's best friend from high school.

Craig Martin, Deni's fiancé, is a lawyer who works for a U.S. Senator in Washington, D.C.
